ANNUAL "82"

To Melissa

You were always one of the best friends and cousin that I ever knew. We've been through a lot together and had Times, but we made it through to the 12th good Times and bad Times, grade. We often got mad at each other for dum reasons and I hope by now that we've grown out of it. I don't have too much more to pay except good luck in the future and I hope you accomplish all the things in life that you plan to. You are a special friend cousin to me and I hope we will always stay as close as we are.

Love Ya
Always

P.S. Keep on attending all your A.A. meetings or you will end up a Damn drunk all you like.

To Lissa,

to my cous. I have known you for a long time. It was very fun for me and I know for you too. You are the most unique person that I ever met. I know for sure that God didn't create another Melissa. You have been into so much shit that it will take me a few years to catch up with you. Thats if I ever do. Now let me cut out all the bull shit. Lets look down memory lane for a while. Remember when me and "Dimples" got put in Hou and your yallow ass didn't. also rememb On my Birthday of 82 when you got ten dollars and I didn't. I know you will never forget when we made Tonya mad at us about Jink Remember that time when you spit in a cup. I know you won't, cause Keith was in the picture then. Well thats all for now because this wasnt enough room.

WE HONOR: JAMES E. STUDEBAKER

Mr. James E. Studebaker resigned as principal of Wilkinsburg High School in October, 1981, to go into the business world as a manufacturer's agent for medical equipment.

Mr. Studebaker, a graduate of WHS, class of 1964, had taught, coached, and served as an administrator during his career at his Alma Mater. When he left Wilkinsburg High School to begin a new career, Mr. Studebaker took with him the best wishes of the administration, the faculty, and the student body for a most successful and happy future.

Melissa, (Hey cool!)

To a sweet and just as beautiful sister-in-law I've known since she was just a tiny baby - its been a few years since then :) You've made it through the fir chapter in your life and before your story is written I hope its one filled with happiness and good health and full of happy memories. Life holds so much for you to "grab on to" and I hope you make the most of yourself cause you'll only do it one time. What you h going for you Melissa, some people never obtain, a thats personality and character. You have a real grea about yourself thats just plain natural — and that's t best kind! Enjoy your final "high school days", I kn

The 1982 ANNUAL Staff, a group of dedicated students, worked diligently under the guidance of their advisor, Mrs. Norma Jean McCann, to produce the 1982 ANNUAL. The members of the staff were responsible for all the business and editorial material involved in publishing a yearbook. The staff made every effort to create a book of memories which would enable students to relive their 1981-82 school year at W.H.S.

The Drama Club, which was sponsored by Mr. David Bird, was very active this year. In December the club had a Christmas party, in April the club members went to a drama workshop at Seton Hill College, and throughout the year the club members saw full-length feature movies. Mark Wagner was president of the Drama Club, and Mike Wagner was the secretary-treasurer.

FIREGUARDS

Standing: J. Portis, D. Riley, J. Harvey. Kneeling: W. Huff, L. Bryan.

The Fireguards, supervised by Mr. Edward Fleming, were entrusted with the safety of the student body of W.H.S. during fire drills. The Fireguards helped to clear the building and stopped or redirected traffic on Wallace and North Avenues.

The Forensic Team attracted students interested in speech activities and oral communication. The W.H.S. team was a member of the National Forensic League and the Pennsylvania High School Speech League. Members were required to earn points for speaking in their fields in order to attain membership in the National Forensic League. The 1981-82 team, coached by Mr. Richard McClain and Mr. Stuart Marks, attended more than 24 tournaments and held its twelfth speech tournament in February.

Officers: C. Womach, Junior Tournament Chairman; S. Mann, Novice Master; E. Hutchinson, Assistant Speech Captain; M. Stephens, Speech Captain; V. Hamm, Senior Tournament Director.

The Future Business Leaders of America was an organization at WHS which gave its members the opportunity to improve and widen their business skills. To help accomplish their goal, group members worked in the Tiger's Den, held many fund raising drives, and conducted a campaign to raise money for Children's Hospital. With the help of their advisor, Mr. Bernard Woodrow, group officers planned these activities which gave the participants a better understanding of the business world.

The Key Club, sponsored by W.H.S. and the Kiwanis Club, was an organization of students who wished to improve the school and community through service projects. Under the direction of Mr. William Chessman and Mr. James Richard, the members helped at the Kiwanis Band Festival, held an "apple day" for the teachers, conducted a Christmas tree sale, and continued their work with the Buddy Program at Johnston School. The highlight of the year's activities was the State Convention held at Downingtown. This year's club was honored to have one of its members, Robert Struble, become a Pennsylvania District Officer. Robert was in charge of all the Key Clubs in the Pittsburgh area.

Those students at W.H.S. who best exemplified the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service made up the Wilkinsburg chapter of the National Honor Society. This organization participated in both community and school projects. Under the guidance of Miss Beverly Brenneman, this year's service project was a continuous effort, by the members, to improve and upgrade the school's image within the community.

Officers: T. Fincher, Vice-president; S. Spieler, President; K. Bassler, Secretary-treasurer.

Last Row: V. Barnett, M. Gail, E. Martin, D. Jones, C. Smith, R. Martin, L. Finney, N. Williams. Second Row: J. Wagner, J. Malone, S. Dinkins, T. Montgomery, D. Madison, M. White, C. Ragin, K. Rose. First Row: B. Hoffee, T. Price, S. Owens, D. Limegrover, L. Thomas, M. Pici, C. Sousa.

The Office Assistants were students who worked in the various offices within the school. These students volunteered their time during study halls to assist the secretaries in whatever ways they could. The Office Assistants helped to contribute to the efficiency of the offices at W.H.S.

SCIENCE CLUB

Back Row: K. Brenckle, J. Portis, R. Ruffin, M. Stephens, V. Taylor, T. Daniels. Front Row: N. Cutler, K. Greisinger, V. McCarthy, V. Rose, J. Martin.

The Science Club, sponsored by Mrs. Meryle Stephens, was a group of students who were interested in continuing their careers in the field of science. Among the activities this group of students participated in was a service drive to collect aluminum cans for recycling. The members of the club also heard speakers from Community College. All of the meetings and activities enhanced the interest in the field of science for the members of the Science Club. (Written by "Tradog" 4/0 83)

Officers: K. Greisinger, President; K. Brenckle, Treasurer; V. McCarthy, Secretary; J. Portis, Vice-president.

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Patricia Rupani, consisted of students who had studied Spanish this year or who had completed two years of the language. The club provided an opportunity for students to study the language and the culture of the Spanish speaking peoples. At the meetings, which were conducted entirely in Spanish, the members became better acquainted with the customs and food of the Spanish culture.

The Wilkinsburg High School Stage Crew, sponsored by Mr. Thomas Hilliard, was a group of dedicated students who were responsible for the behind-the-scenes operations of the auditorium. The stage crew operated the lighting and sound equipment, and set up the various props needed for pep rallies, assemblies, and concerts. The dedication and work of the members of this organization contributed to the successful programs held in the auditorium.

First Row: A. Quast, L. Bryan, C. Wells, R. Kovalik, R. Middleton, R. Kos, S. Johnson, D. Mason, J. Tillman.

During the 1981-82 school year, the members of Student Council worked diligently to instill pride at W.H.S. Under the guidance of Miss Melissa Vought, they sponsored many activities throughout the year. Student Council's members were responsible for Spirit Week, which included the crowning of the homecoming king and queen, the poster contest, and player and club appreciation day. They also sponsored several fund-raising activities: bake sales at football games, coupon sales, and carnation sales for Valentine's Day. Other activities which they sponsored included a canned-goods drive for Thanksgiving, a homeroom door-decorating contest for Christmas, and the "Almost Anything Goes" contest for the Spring. All of these activities helped to make the 1981-82 school year a most memorable one for students at W.H.S.

"This 1981-82 basketball team has the potential to be the best Wilkinsburg basketball team ever." — I made that statement at the beginning of the season, and Coach Art Griffiths agreed. However, somewhere along the way, we lost our concentration on winning in the name of Wilkinsburg, and it cost us some important games. Nevertheless, in true Tiger tradition, the team fought back, and, as this book went to press, remained dimly in the basketball playoff picture. As always, we owe a special thanks to our seniors who gave so much of themselves to make Wilkinsburg a winner. To Captain Keith Oatneal, David Jones, Thomas Massung, James Turner, and Ross Watson, we say, "Congratulations!" Now it's on to 1982-83, when we shall be depending upon Darrin Arkins, William Huff, Darryl McClung, Michael Ryan, and Steve Vandiver to form the nucleus of the ever-prowling Tiger Team still seeking and searching for the evasive prey, a Section Championship.

ALMA MATER

For you, High, for you,
Our gallant red and blue,
We always will support you
In everything you do.
We'll share all joys and glooms,
Whatever comes to you;
And we'll always win our games
For you, High, for you, High.
We'll uphold your fame.
